

Ridolfi awarded NOAA contract

July 2, 2008 – Seattle

RIDOLFI Inc. has been awarded a $3.5 million dollar contract with the Department of Commerce's National Oceanic Atmospheric Administration (NOAA). The Technical Support Services for Uncontrolled Hazardous Waste Sites contract includes performing various tasks to identify and assess the risks to coastal natural resources from hazardous-waste sites and to develop cost effective strategies that will minimize those risks.